NEWS RELEASE

Wingrave Opens New Veterinary Surgery in Horton

Wingrave Veterinary Practice is delighted to announce the opening of its new Horton Surgery in Pelman Way. In addition to traditional services, the new surgery will provide the local area with leading additional therapies and services such as acupuncture, behavioural therapy, physiotherapy and puppy parties. The new location complements Wingrave's existing surgeries in Sutton, Chipstead and Epsom.

Wingrave has invested in the new surgery and facilities to give pet owners a comprehensive range of treatment options. The practice offers separate cat and dog waiting areas – creating a relaxing environment for all our clients and their pets with the added benefits of the convenient location and ample parking. The team has extensive experience in both the traditional and additional treatments and therapies available and will guide and advise on the best options for customers and their pets. The practice is keen to become involved in the local community and its puppy parties give pet owners in the area an opportunity to meet, make friends and socialise their pets.

To welcome customers to the new Horton surgery, Wingrave is offering all new appointments booked until the end of January 2015 the opportunity to claim a free health-check and nail clip or £10 Booster.

Ilka Orsinger, Head Vet at Wingrave Horton Surgery said, "Our vets have vast experience, our surgery has exceptional facilities and we treat pets as an extension of their owners' families; with care and expert attention. The team and I are excited about joining the Horton community and being able to offer pet owners and their pets the chance to use the full range of therapies and treatments available from the Wingrave Team. We look forward to welcoming customers to the surgery, listening to their needs and meeting and caring for their pets."
